AL MUSANNA COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY
Educational Technology Center
Short Term Courses - (AY2018 – '19)

Course Name : Web Designing
Pre Requisite : Basic HTML Tags, Image editing	Eligibility: Diploma, Advanced Diploma or Bachelor(any specialization with basic HTML Knowledge)

Introduction: Learn about web design layout, styling, debugging and manipulating websites with an emphasis on design

Objectives: End of this course, you should be able to ➢ Understand the basics of CSS and HTML

➢ Learn about current web designing trends and developments (Bootstrap)
➢ Build your own sample website

Topics	Methodologies
1. Introduction to HTML5 elements and attributes: The first session consist of - An Introduction to HTML5 elements and its attributes - the sample HTML code and run it with elements - Attributes in HTML editor (Adobe Dreamweaver CS5) HTML forms, images, lists, table and links.	Practical
2. Introduction to Cascading style sheets (CSS): The second session is an Introduction to Cascading style sheets (CSS) controlling design and layout using CSS. - Creating tables, lists, horizontal and vertical menus using the CSS style sheet. - The CSS templates to create webpages.	Practical
3. Bootstrap Templates and Themes; designing, building, Uploading a website using Dreamweaver: The third session consist of - Creating and editing the Bootstrap templates with the Bootstrap sample pages. - Creating a website using Dreamweaver environment. - Designing elements to web pages, creating the web site and saving the website. - To create a web site structure, create a title, upload the website and publish in the host server environment.	Practical
Software & Hardware Tools: Adobe Dreamweaver CS, Adobe Photoshop and above version	